

AAHU Community Mobilization College
Program Curriculum

Topic	Overview
Module 1: HIV/AIDS in Black America
Overview of Training	An orientation to the Community Mobilization College (program format, assignments, and expectations)
The Black Aids Institute and African American HIV/AIDS University	A history of Black community mobilization, the United States' HIV/AIDS strategies, BAI's We the People strategy, and current HIV biomedical prevention and intervention methods
National HIV/AIDS Strategies
Ending AIDS in Black America: HIV Prevention, Treatment, Breakthroughs, and Hope
Module 2: Community Mobilization
Defining Community Mobilization	An overview of community mobilization and key steps in building a effective community coalition
Mobilization Principles
Introduction to Coalition Building
Module 3: Needs Assessments
Defining Needs Assessments	Understanding how to identify important background information on priority populations and community issues, as well as how to utilize various data collection methods to collect key information from community members
Community Needs Assessment Components
Gap Analysis
Formulating a Problem Statement

Planning A Needs Assessment
Data Collection
Learning Checkpoint Examination for Modules 1-3
Module 4: Logic Modeling
Logic Model Components	Tools and Information needed to create a targeted and effective logic model for community initiatives
Evaluation
Logic Model Presentations	